

Rent this Peaceful Retreat

... a wild and natural place to replenish the heart ...

Hand-built from recycled and sustainable-use materials, straw bales and lime stucco, this haven in the wilderness blends creature comforts with ecological kindness. Cozy in winter, cool in summer and appointed with tile, curved cedar balconies, an observation deck, antique oven, and other inspired touches, the Brierpatch Cabin is a true home.

Visitors come to soak in the spirit of the place; floating on the river, watching the fireflies light up the field at nightfall, talking companionably on the deck, swinging in the hammock, reading in the loft, playing cards around the table, enjoying a hot outdoor shower, or sitting on the front porch swing drinking freshly-made iced mint tea from the herb garden. Time seems to slow to a long, healing draught of simple respite and reconnection. If you want a dip back into the entertainments of town, nearby historic Lewisburg offers theater, shopping and dining, and an annual State Fair.

Whatever your needs for a truly peaceful retreat; welcome.
